Re.: “Mass Cancel” Order Cancellation Functionality – Start of Certification

Pursuant to the continuous enhancement process of its systems and meeting demand from the market, B3 hereby informs you of the launch of the Mass Cancel functionality for the mass cancellation of orders.

Technical details of the new functionality are available at https://clientes.b3.com.br/en_us, Roadmap, by typing “Mass Cancel” in the Advanced Filter field.

Mass Cancel will be available in a certification environment as of October 28, 2022. Participants wishing to use the functionality must mandatorily certificate it.

The procedure must be scheduled with Trading Support, by emailing tradingcertification@b3.com.br.

Implementation of the functionality in a production environment will be announced in due course via External Communication.

The certification scripts for the new functionality are available at www.b3.com.br/en_us/, Solutions, Platforms, PUMA Trading System, Developers and vendors, How to certify, Certification scripts.
